Message from Our Leadership

Every one of us is special. We are born with dormant potential that needs to be tapped to achieve greatness and happiness. Career planning is essential for everyone to channel their potential and inclinations. We have to create quality professionals who could deliver the best and mentor individuals towards their goals.

NEP 2020 explicitly suggests the availability of counsellors in the school offering career guidance and career mapping to the students
(Sections: 1.7, 3.7, 4.35, 12.4, & 17.8)

Hello there!

Those of us born during the pre-liberalization era of the Indian economy had few career choices to consider and grew up with an attitude that an opportunity is everything irrespective of the career. However, times have changed and currently, every field has numerous career opportunities. Personally, studying in India and Abroad, pursuing career dream across various continents I could witness how socio-economic, cultural and regional demographics play a vital role in how we look at life and especially our careers.

While the future of India is transforming in the schools and colleges, they deserve a scientific approach towards career planning and skill-building as they are confined neither by geographical boundaries nor popular career choices.

“MindsCue is a holistic scientific approach towards Career Building that has 3 parts to it: Career Assessments, Career Planning and Skill Building. We have the responsibility to overcome popular science in career planning with the actual science for assured success in life.

All about balancing between Aspirations and Abilities
